MEMORANDUM FOR THE DEPUTY DIRECTOR

SUBJECT: William Borklund of the ARMED FORCES MANAGEMENT MAGAZINE

1. This memorandum is for your information.
2. William Borklund of the ARMED FORCES MANAGEMENT MAGAZINE, who says he is a friend of the Director, was referred by the DCI's secretary to this office.
3. He said Praeger has asked him to do a book of 225 pages on the CIA. The thrust would be toward senior high school and undergraduate college students. It would include the history, organization, functions, careers, employment practices, etc. of the Agency. This book, he said, would be one of a series on Government that Praeger is bringing out. Borklund has finished one book on the Department of Defense for Praeger.
4. He said he had talked to John Mellin about this previously and will again get in touch with Mr. Mellin when he returns from leave on 6 December. I see no reason why we should not cooperate within the limits of security, but will not make a recommendation until after Borklund gets in touch with Mr. Mellin and we have him come in for a conversation.
